

A GOVERNOR IN A WRECK

Gov. Woodruff of Connecticut
Was Hurt To-day

FOUR MEN WERE KILLED

Head-on Collision of Regular Passenger Train and a Special—Two Locomotives Wrecked Into a Tangled Mass.

Waterbury, Conn., March 2.—A head-on collision between a regular passenger train on the Naugatuck division, due here at 12:49 a. m., and a special consisting of an engine and one passenger car, carrying home the members of company F, the New Haven Grays, caused four deaths and a score or more were injured. Governor Woodruff and three members of his staff received slight injuries. Two militiamen were seriously hurt and scarcely one escaped without some injury.

The dead are the two engineers and their firemen. The crash came without warning. Both locomotives were wrecked into one tangled mass.

Company F had been attending a banquet at the Elton last night, and was on the homeward trip when the accident happened. The trains came together half a mile from Naugatuck division depot. Hurried calls were at once sent out for doctors and ambulances.

FIREMAN BURNED UNDER TRAIN.

Passenger Train Crashes Into a Freight Train.

Powder Springs, Ga., March 2.—A Sea-board Air Line passenger train from Birmingham for Atlanta ran into the rear end of a freight train here last night. Fireman Charles Hutchins of the passenger train was cremated under his engine. The colored fireman and baggage-master were seriously injured, and the mail clerk and Pullman porter were slightly injured.

There were about fifty passengers on the train and all were badly shaken up. The wreckage took fire and the entire passenger train, consisting of a Pullman sleeper, three coaches, a baggage and express and mail car, was burned.

A flagman had been sent back by the freight train, but he says that he was unable to stop the fast approaching passenger train in time to avert the crash.

POLICE INTERFERE.

Crowd Tries to Force Its Way in at Wedding at Brattleboro.

Brattleboro, March 2.—A crowd of over-zealous friends of George Joseph Crone attempted to get into Judge W. S. Newton's office Thursday night to witness the marriage of Crone to Miss Lucy Maria White of Hadley, Mass. Judge Newton's ire was aroused by the intrusion and he called upon policeman William Warren to keep the crowd back.

The would-be spectators tried to force themselves through the front entrance of the town hall building, in which Judge Newton's office is located, but the officer successfully resisted the crush.

After the ceremony Judge Newton escorted the bride and groom to the rear part of the building and another police officer assisted them to a place of safety. No arrest was made.

BILL FINALLY PASSED.

Ship Subsidy Bill Was Once Defeated in the House.

Washington, D. C., March 2.—It has been years since the House of Representatives was the scene of such a fight between the two great parties as that witnessed there yesterday over the ship subsidy bill. The bill was passed but not until it had been once defeated, which in itself shows how close the alignment was. When the first vote disclosed a majority against the measure the Democrats and their Republican allies made the House ring with their cheers. There were several roll calls before the final favorable result was obtained. The vote on the Litaner substitute was defeated on the first vote, 154 yeas, 161 nays.

Royal Venetian Band.

From none of the entertainments presented by the Y. M. C. A. Star Course this season have patrons received greater pleasure than from the concert at Foot Guard hall last evening by Victor's Royal Venetian band. The program of nine numbers filled fully two hours and a half, for after nearly every selection an encore was called. Miss Lowrie of New York, the soprano soloist who is accompanying the band this season, appeared several times during the evening and by the remarkable way in which she controlled her voice, as well as by volume, she won hearty applause. Her first solo was "My Dreams," by Tosti, and she also sang "The Land of the U. S. A." and other popular favorites.

The program opened with a march, "Western Beauties," one of Victor's own compositions. The overture was "El Cuartito," Gomez, was followed by a selection from Gounod's "Faust," of which the "Soldiers' Chorus" formed a part. The incidental solo in this selection was given by Signor Pontrelli-Perillo. Previous to an intermission a medley of national airs was played.

The sixth number on the program was from Rossini's "William Tell." This was followed by the celebrated waltz from "Lucia di Lammermoor," Bizet's "Carmen." The incidental solos in the operatic selections were one of the best features of the concert.—Hartford, Conn. Courant, of Feb. 27, 1907. At Barre opera house, Wednesday, March 6.

STILL DOCTORING AT 87.

Dr. Edward O. Whipple of Danby Is Still Hale and Hearty.

Rutland, March 2.—Probably the oldest practicing physician in the state if not in fact the oldest professional man in active business, is Dr. Edward O. Whipple of Danby, who although 87 years of age, gives all his attention to a large practice which necessitates long drives through the mountain roads of the southern part of Rutland county. Dr. Whipple heads a midnight drive no more than he did 40 years ago and he has always been so successful that his circle of patients in his part of the county is extremely large, although he still adheres to "old school" methods. Dr. Whipple has a remarkable physique, passes his leisure hours in scientific reading and, although he allows himself few holidays, he is an expertly caterer and many a croel full of trout are taken home by him from the Danby streams.

Dr. Whipple was born at Athens, Vt. At the age of 16 he left the home farm to learn dentistry with a view to paying off a $400 mortgage for his father. In two years he had accomplished this and taken a trip to the west. He arrived in a town of the middle west with 40 cents in his pocket but with his dental kit under his arm he went from place to place and soon had enough money to settle down for study. By the next spring he had saved sufficient money to come east and study. He took a course with physicians of both the botanical and Tomsonian schools and perfected himself in Bellevue hospital, New York.

Then in 1848 he started at Danby a practice which with the exception of a year and a half when he attempted to practice at Manchester, has continued with unusual success for nearly 60 years. While he was at Manchester his old friends at Danby urged him so often to return that he finally agreed to their requests.

Dr. Whipple was twice married. He has one son, also a physician, who is in San Diego, Cal.

CALLED ON GOV. GUILD.

Senior Class of Barton High School in Boston.

Boston, Mass., March 2.—Fifty-five members of the senior class of the high school of Barton, Vt., having decided on a sight-seeing trip instead of having special gowns and other frivolities at graduation, yesterday took in the places of special interest in Boston.

The central feature of the day's programme was a reception given the visiting students by Governor Guild, who was arranged for by Carl H. Jewell of Boston, formerly a resident of Barton. The governor received the party at the state house at 11:30, and besides extending the young Vermonters a cordial welcome to Massachusetts, he gave an instructive talk, dwelling especially on the state flag, a handsome specimen of which emblem hangs in the executive chamber. The governor's courtesy was warmly appreciated.

The party, which is in charge of principal H. J. Stannard of the school, left last evening by the Fall River line for New York, Philadelphia and Washington. It is expected that one of the congressmen from Vermont will secure the students an opportunity to meet the president.

ONE WILLING TO WORK.

And He Will Be Given a Chance as Soon as Possible.

Chelsea, Mass., March 2.—At the meeting of the prison board of Orange county held at the county clerk's office yesterday, the full board was present with the exception of Joe Wells of Randolph, county highway supervisor whose absence was due to illness. The board consisted of Judge C. C. Lathrop of Williamstown chairman, and Sheriff W. H. Sprague of Chelsea, secretary. The secretary was empowered to arrange for the labor of such prisoners as may be required to labor under the new law and fix such compensation as the exigencies of the various cases might warrant, until further action of the board relative to this particular feature should be taken. At the present time there is but one person confined in the jail who may be required to labor, and to show his hearty co-operation with the prison board to test the practical working of the new law. He is a prisoner named "but his shoulder to the wheel" and he will be given the opportunity as soon as the sheriff can strike the man who wants his woodpile saved.

GODFREY IS APPOINTED.

Gov. Proctor Names Bennington Man
as Sheriff.

Bennington, March 2.—Frederick Godfrey yesterday afternoon received from Gov. Proctor his appointment as sheriff to succeed Henry S. Wilson of Arlington, resigned.

The appointee has been deputy under Sheriff Wilson ever since the latter's first election to the office 14 years ago. In his letter of resignation to Gov. Proctor, Sheriff Wilson stated that his reasons for giving up the office are that the position of state cattle commissioner, which he was appointed early in January, required a large portion of his time and that he did not think it fair for him to continue to hold both offices.

SUES FOR $10,000.

Attorney W. W. Rider Places Attachment on Rutland R. R.

Rutland, March 2.—An attachment for $10,000 was placed on the property of the Rutland railroad today as the result of a suit for negligence brought in Addison county court by attorney W. W. Rider of Bristol, who received injuries in the Vergennes wreck December 1. Mr. Rider is still confined to the house.

DEMAND AN ACCOUNTING

In Financial Affairs of Mary
Baker Eddy

HER RELATIVES ACT ON IT

Says That Her Mind Has Become Clouded and She Is Not Capable of Carrying on the Business as Demanded.

Concord, N. H., March 2.—A bill in equity to obtain an accounting of the financial affairs of Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, head of the Christian Science church, was filed in the superior court for Merrimack county yesterday by Mrs. Eddy's son, George W. Glover of Deadwood, S. D., and his daughter, Miss Mary Baker Glover, and George W. Baker of Bangor, Me., nephew and "next friend" of Mrs. Eddy. The bill is directed against Alfred Farlow and other trustees of the Christian Science church in Boston, and Calvin A. Frye, Mrs. Eddy's secretary, Lewis C. Strang, her assistant secretary, and Herman S. Herring, first reader of the church in Concord.

Besides demanding an account of all transactions relative to Mrs. Eddy's affairs, the bill asks for restitution in case any wrong doing appears; for an injunction during litigation against interference with her property and business; and for a receiver.

Is Acting for Mother.

In a statement issued last night by former United States Senator W. E. Chandler, a special counsel in the action, it is declared that Mr. Glover is actuated by no spirit of disrespect to his mother, but believes that the proceeding is in her real interest. Mr. Glover says that the action is not directed against the religion of the Christian Scientists.

The statement further declares that Mr. Glover had long thought that his mother was growing too feeble in body and mind to attend to important business matters, but that for a long time he was unable to confirm his suspicion because those immediately about her seemed unwilling to allow her nearest relatives to have an interview long enough to reveal her actual condition. Early in January, however, it is stated, Mr. Glover, while on a visit to Concord, was enabled to talk with his mother for three-quarters of an hour. As a result, after due consideration, he decided upon the present action "as an imperative duty too long neglected."

What Is Charged.

Specifically, the bill alleges that the nominal plaintiff, Mrs. Eddy, who sues "by her next friend," is and for a long time has been incompetent to do business or to understand transactions conducted in her name in connection with her property.

The next allegation is that the defendants have possessed themselves of her person and property, and have carried on the business.

It is also alleged that having done this and knowing of her infirmity, they have become trustees for her of all property which has come into her possession and are bound to give account thereof and of all their transactions in her name. It is further alleged that there is reason to fear that the defendants are converting some of her property to their own use, and that there are particular transactions of which an account should be given.

Mr. Glover is a son of Mrs. Eddy by her first husband. He is not now in New Hampshire, and it is understood that he and his daughter have returned to their home in Deadwood.

G. W. Baker is a son of Mrs. Eddy's brother, the late George Sullivan Baker, and is her only surviving nephew.

MR. FARLOW SURPRISED.

On the Starting Developments at Concord, N. H.

Boston, March 2.—Alfred Farlow, publicity representative of the Christian Scientists, was much surprised when the newspapers dropped in on him at his office in the Huntington Chambers last evening.

"This is the first notice I have received of any action being taken against Mrs. Eddy," he said. "I cannot see any reason why an injunction should be asked, as Mrs. Eddy is competent to manage her own affairs without instruction from anybody."

"This talk about Mrs. Eddy being under control of her secretaries is nonsense. During the past few months I have personally seen and talked with Mrs. Eddy and therefore I do not hesitate to say that she is enjoying good health, has full command of her faculties, and knows just what to do or what not to do."

Mrs. Eddy, as head of our church, has confidential work to do, and the splendid results which she has accomplished amply demonstrate that she is fully able to look after her money matters and her property.

"I do not understand why the trustees should be brought into the suit, as our work is directly connected with the running of the church, and we are not identified in any way with the parties praying for the injunction."

Further than this, Mr. Farlow would not talk, as he said the matter must be considered by the trustees before any statement could be given to the public.

SHERIFF WILSON RESIGNS.

Had Held Bennington County Office For 14 Years.

Bennington, March 2.—H. S. Wilson, of Arlington, who has held the office fourteen years, has tendered his resignation to Governor Proctor. In his letter the sheriff says that inasmuch as he had been appointed to the office of cattle commissioner, which is a salaried position, it would be unfair to the state for him to receive the emoluments of the office of sheriff.

FAST MILE ON THE ICE.

Jubilee Made 2:19½ on Lake Champlain Yesterday.

Burlington, March 2.—The last of the three days' trotting meet held under the auspices of the Burlington Driving club occurred yesterday afternoon. The races proved to be the fastest of the entire meet and were also the most interesting. The fourth mile of the black gelding Jubilee, in the free-for-all race, was made in 2:19½, which is within two seconds of the ice record made in Ottawa, Ont., over a half mile track. Considering the half-mile track and other conditions, that was considered a remarkable performance. Each race yesterday was highly contested and many of the finishes were made under the whip. The crowd was the largest of any during the three days, and included horsemen from throughout New England, New York and Canada.

LARGE BENEFACTION GIVEN TO VERGENNES

Late William G. Bixby Gave Money to Establish Library—Other Donations.

Vergennes, March 2.—This city is generally remembered by the late William G. Bixby whose will was filed for probate here yesterday. A sum which is estimated at between $100,000 and $150,000 is willed the city for the establishment and maintenance of a public library. The will provides for the payment of several public and private bequests that the residue of the estate shall be devoted to the above purpose. Other public bequests include $18,000 to the Prospect cemetery association, of which Mr. Bixby was a trustee, and $5,000 each for the Hampton institute, the Vergennes Normal institute and an orphan asylum at Chicago.

The estate is valued at between $275,000 and $300,000 although close personal friends of the deceased state that it will not reach this amount.

Mr. Bixby was interested in real estate in Vergennes and it is reported that he owned one block in Chicago which brought him an annual income of $15,000.

Besides the public bequests it is understood that a large sum is left to individuals.

Regarding the proving of the will Judge E. A. Haskins yesterday appointed C. H. Strong as special administrator.

DISAGREE ON THE SITE

Montpelier Committee Puts
it up to Voters

THEY REPORTED TO-DAY

Advise the Erection of a $125,000 Building, Including the Cost of the Site, With Bond Issue to That Amount.

Montpelier, March 2.—The city hall committee, which has been discussing the city hall question for several months, reported today. The committee agrees on the advisability of constructing a city building, and recommends that plan number seven be accepted. The architect presenting this plan has not been named, but the committee recommends that E. A. Walker of Barre, a member of the firm of Walker & Gallison, be retained as associate. They advise that this report be accepted by the voters next Tuesday, and that at that time the meeting choose a committee of seven to have charge of the construction of the building.

A building to cost $125,000, including site, furnishings and vaults, is recommended, and they advise the issuing of bonds to that amount as soon as the market becomes favorable. Four per cent bonds are favored, payable half-yearly, and to be retired $7,500 each year, so that at the end of twenty years the building will be paid for.

The site they leave to the voters, as they have been unable to agree. C. P. Pitkin, J. A. Delbor and G. O. Stratton favor the Skinner property, opposite the postoffice on State street. Mayor Haley, W. A. Lord and J. H. Senter think the Willard property on the north side of the postoffice is the best place, while Martin W. Wheelock alone sticks out for the Haymarket square site, which is now owned by the city. The argument in favor of the State street site is that the business section is becoming congested, and that the only place for business purposes left is Haymarket square, which should therefore be left.

MONTPELIER MERCHANTS TO FORM ASSOCIATION

Large Attendance at Preliminary Meeting Held Last Evening.

Almost every line of trade in Montpelier was represented at a meeting of the merchants called for last evening to take preliminary steps toward effecting an organization. Elsie Winter, New England organizer for the National association of Retail Grocers, was present and explained the objects of such an organization, creating a spirit of sociability and the benefits of the community. Mr. Winter complimented the merchants of Montpelier on cutting out programme advertising and spoke of the excellent success he has had thus far in Vermont in working up county organizations.

The matter was informally discussed and it was thought best to appoint a committee representing every branch of trade in town to further consider the matter and report at a subsequent meeting. Perley E. Pope, who presided last night, was authorized to appoint such a committee and by vote of the meeting Mr. Pope was made chairman of the committee. Another meeting will be held some evening next week.

BARCLAY BROS. MEN HAVE THEIR ANNUAL

A Banquet and Dance Held Last Night
—Mayor Barclay Was One of the Speakers.

The employees of Barclay Brothers held their eighth annual concert and ball in Woodmen's hall last evening, and the occasion was one of the most enjoyable ever held by the employees of the large granite plant. The hall was handsomely decorated, flags of the United States, Great Britain, Scotland and Italy ornamenting the walls, and a large portrait of Mayor William Barclay, the head of the firm, being placed on the walls over the orchestra. Nearly all the employees with their families were in attendance, and the large Woodmen's hall was filled to its seating capacity.

After an opening overture by Gilbertson's orchestra, John Watt, chairman of the committee, introduced their employer, Mr. Barclay, who said he had always favored times like this, and that he never saw any cutters there who had a hole in their stone, or any cutter with razed letters, or any with "bumache" in his stone, let them forget all their trials for the evening and enjoy themselves. He had always encouraged the idea of "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," so he wished them all to enjoy themselves to their fullest. He had encouraged the eight-hour and $3 a day movement, though he had always tried to raise the standard of work among the employers and have less competition. The women had taught them a lesson as regards that, which it would be wise for them to follow. He said there were several of the city officials and also the mayor-to-be present, and he wanted to urge on them the benefits of a $2.50 tax. He was against the expenditure of $18,000 on streets the coming year, as it was not needed, and he said the officials, that were to be, to do their utmost for the city's growth and prosperity. In closing he had only to remark that he had always advocated such gatherings as this as tending to a better feeling between employer and employee.

Following Mr. Barclay's remarks one of the finest concerts given in the city in a long time was rendered, the programme being as follows:

Solo, My Nannie's Awa'. Mr. G. Mitchell
Solo, Only a Rose. Miss L. Morse
Solo, La Morte Di Ofele. Miss L. Morse
Violin solo, Miserere from Il Trovatore. Mr. F. Whitler
Solo, Loch Lomond. Miss E. Phillips
Highland Dancing. The Barclay Sisters
Solo, The Mission of the Rose. Mr. W. Robertson
Solo, Nannie, Wilt Thou Gang With Me? Mr. L. G. Griffith
Comic song. Geo. P. Biddle
Duet, Babel. Italian Mandolin club
Irish jig. Mr. R. Stewart

After the concert refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, tea, cake and fruit were served and then the night was given out to dancing, music being furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra.

SCOTSMEN GATHER.

Many in Barre Town and Vicinity Have a Fine Time.

The Scotch residents of Barre town and vicinity with their invited friends spent a very enjoyable evening at the East Barre opera house Thursday evening, the event taking the form of a banquet and dance. Shortly after eight o'clock the company, numbering about 150, seated themselves at the tables, which were called to order by George Lawson, who acted as toastmaster for the evening. After welcoming the invited guests, he delivered a short address, after which he proposed a silent toast to our president, which was followed by a song by William McDonald.

The toastmaster then proposed the toast, "Scotland," which was responded to in a very able manner by John Donald, who in his remarks brought back the memories of Scotland's bonnie hills. This was followed by a toast to "America," which was responded to in a very able manner by James K. Pirie.

A short programme was then rendered as follows: song, Mrs. Forbes Bissett; reading, Miss Flossie Mitchell; song, Tom McDonald; reading, Miss Jane McDonald.

After partaking of a splendid chicken supper, the people cleared the hall for dancing and singing, which was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours of the morning. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Scotch orchestra from Barre, composed of four pieces. William McDonald, outstanding in the company with a Scotch song, he being dressed in Highland costume. His work was heartily applauded.

The success of the affair was due to the work of the committee, which was as follows: George Lawson, John Slater, James Boyd, John Donald, James Laird, John Patterson, William Anderson and John Thompson.

ABOUT THE DINNER TABLE.

"Over the Tea Cup" Have a Demonstrating Time.

A most enjoyable afternoon was passed at the home of Mrs. F. T. Cutler yesterday, when the Over the Tea Cup club observed domestic science. At 3 o'clock they were seated at the table and the charming demonstration was in order. Mrs. Rickert demonstrated salmon curry; Mrs. McFarland, shrimp a la Newburg; Mrs. Bond, ring dum dillies; Mrs. Cutler, Chicken habibut. All was pronounced fine. The table was filled with other dainties, such as the Tea Cups know an informal way, the committee being in readiness to respond to every question of which there were not a few. After lingering at the table until their limited time had expired, they all declared that the old proverb was true, that while the stomach is at work, the brain is at rest, and as one member expresses it, "while we go on with our library work week after week, we feel we have been benefited by our domestic science afternoon."

HAD NO ASSETS.

John F. McKenzie of Williamstown Is in Bankruptcy.

Burlington, March 2.—John F. McKenzie of Williamstown filed a petition
